JUST 12 MILES SOUTH OF WICKENBURG ON VULTURE MINE RD.

HOWDY! Welcome to Wickenburg!

A western-style "Out Wickenburg Way" welcome to all of our visitors this weekend!

We hope whether you're a returning Gold Rush Days fan or a first-timer that you enjoy our 72nd Annual Gold Rush Days celebration.

The Wickenburg Chamber of Commerce is very proud to sponsor this celebration of our ranching and mining heritage. Gold is what created this community – more specifically, the gold that Henry Wickenburg discovered in 1863. This true-west celebration has stood the test of time, bringing residents and visitors alike a taste of yesteryear.

Over the years this Signature Event for our community has received many outstanding accolades and recognition. Arizona Office of Tourism selected Gold Rush Days as the Best Special Rural Event, and the Arizona Centennial Commission selected this celebration as one of the official events for the Arizona Centennial in 2012.

As a community in our 156th year we pause to remember and salute our settlers who founded a community we are so proud of. Western Hospitality is not a catch-penny phrase in Wickenburg. As befits this truly western town, hospitality and friendliness are a charming part of the town's personality, as genuine and real as the surrounding hills.

Sunday, February 16

Sunday is the final day for Gold Rush Days, starting at 10:00 a.m. a real mining tradition continues with the Mucking & Drilling Contest. Again, this year APS sponsors the Mucking & Drilling Contests near the Main festival grounds. You'll find contestants competing for $1,000 in added prize money in the old-time mining methods that include single and double jack drilling, and the shoveling of ore in the timed mucking contest. (Triple Jack has been eliminated.) It's a race against time, but even more than that it's a race of muscle, sweat, coordination and true grit. Spectators can take a chance on their favorite miner and bid at the Calcutta Auction. Co-chairs are: Bobbette Moralez and her nephew Zach Moralez. Contestants register on Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

Brown's Carnival opens at 10:00 a.m. through 7:00 p.m. with fun rides and amusements for all ages to enjoy! The food court and kiddie rides surround the north side of the area.

Gold Panning continues, arts/crafts exhibitors and the Wickenburg Art Club Artisan's Fair in the park next to the public library.

At 1:00 p.m. the Arizona Championship Gold Panning Contest is held on the south-east side of the community center. Jack & Lisa Tucker and their Gold Fever Radio Prospecting Club volunteers will man this area all three days and will also conduct the championship contest.

At 2:00 p.m. the final performance of the National Senior Pro Rodeo will begin at the Rodeo Grounds.

And at 7:00 p.m. the final performance of the Wickenburg Desert Stagers Melodrama takes place at the historic Saguaro Theatre.

Desert Stagers Performing Melodrama/ Vaudeville Show for Gold Rush Days

The Wickenburg Desert Stagers will once again provide a rip-roaring, audience-pleasing, cheer-the-hero, boo-the-villain, hilarious melodrama for Gold Rush Days. Performances are Friday, Feb. 14; Saturday, Feb. 15; and Sunday, Feb. 16 starting at 7 PM, at the historic Saguaro Theater downtown on Wickenburg Way. Tickets are $12 per person and are on sale now at the Wickenburg Chamber of Commerce.

This year's melodrama is "Tillie the Teller" or "The Great Bank Robbery." The setting is the UMB-Chase-Wells Fargo-First National- Bank of America in Wickenburg, during the challenging times of the Old West.

Tillie Forsythe, our lovely heroine, is portrayed by Alisha Elliott. Oliver Wheedle, the black-hearted villainous president of the bank, is played by Jason Slane, in his first melodrama role. Peter Strongvault, the noble bank guard with limitless heroism, is played by Spenser Lowe. Kristi Henson and Suzy Winzeler portray Hilda and Twilda Marchbanks, the chief (and only) stockholders and Board of Directors of the bank. Cathy Loupy, another newcomer, is Aunt Gertrude, Tillie's sickly old aunt. Brianna Fornoff, is Suzie, a young girl who is addicted to ice cream. Brianna's dad, Heath Fornoff, another newcomer to the melodrama, plays Jessie Frank James, a desperate outlaw.

Preceding the melodrama each evening is a Vaudeville Show, with perennially popular emcee CW, featuring local talented singers, musicians, a cowboy poet, and novelty acts.

The melodrama and vaudeville show are two of the most entertaining events during the annual Gold Rush Days celebration, and since each night is usually a sellout, everyone is encouraged to purchase tickets early at the Wickenburg Chamber of Commerce. Tickets for any of the performances that don't sell out beforehand will be available at the door.

Grand Marshals of Gold Rush Days

By Anie Wayman-Trujillo

Sun Correspondent

Stan and Bette Watson have been named Grand Marshals of the 2020 Gold Rush Days Parade.

The Watsons are no strangers to the Gold Rush Days celebrations. As 50-year residents of Wickenburg, volunteering for the many events in their community has been a way of life for this well-known couple.

Moving to Wickenburg when the population was only 2,400, Stan and Bette understood the importance of giving back to the small town where they wanted to live and raise their two daughters.

Stan set up shop in the insurance business and Bette started serving as a 4-H leader and helping out at the Wickenburg Chamber of Commerce. "The Chamber was very different back then," Bette says. "I did a lot of different duties and helped out with all the events like the mixers and the newsletter. I was also on one of many Miss Gold Nugget committees," she remembers.

Stan also became involved with the Chamber by becoming the chairman of the Gold Rush Days gold panning. "Gold panning and the rodeo were what Gold Rush Days was all about," Stan remembers.

Stan also served as the president of the Chamber and in 1986-1987 was the original chairman of the renovation committee of the Santa Fe Depot, where the Chamber is housed today. Stan still holds a position on the Chamber's Past Presidents Council.

Because of their dedication to the community and "through their civic leadership, both of these volunteers have been recognized by our organization as well as the Town of Wickenburg and Lions International," stated Julie Brooks, executive director of the Chamber.

Volunteering did not stop with just the Chamber however, Stan enjoyed 25 years as part of the chain crew at the high school football games, was active as a Wickenburg Lion, was a volunteer fireman for 18 years and even did a stint on Town Council. Bette also would volunteer for the Wickenburg Lioness Ladies, and was instrumental in getting the Red Ribbon and Lioness' Against Drugs program started and worked for the Wickenburg Sun selling specialty ads for 15 years. She's also well known for her tireless efforts with the Wickenburg Welcome Wagon, which reached out in friendship to new town residents.

Although health issues have slowed down Stan's volunteering duties, Bette still keeps busy working at the Chamber on Fridays holding the title of the longest-serving Visitors Center Information Specialist.

Stan and Bette have seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren most of which still live in and around Arizona. They celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary in September 2019 in Wickenburg and as Stan states, "We would not trade being a part of Wickenburg for anything, it's truly been a treasure being here."
